The "OWOSSO" 10c Baking Powder.

Do you use a 10c Powder. If you do, I wish to call your attention to my "OWOSSO" powder. Every can is warranted to do good work and to please the consumer or money refunded. You can't buy "OWOSSO" powder of any one else in the city, and no other powder sold for 10 cents can begin to equal it in quality. Don't take any other but get the "OWOSSO."

Japan Tea Sale.

We allow no one to undersell us on any grade of tea. Our "SALE" is going on all the time every day in the month, and we give you our guarantee that any tea of any grade you get from us you cannot match at any store in the city for the money. We mean exactly what we say, and we are willing that you should be the judge. All we ask of any one is to compare our teas with what they get at other stores and see if they are not fully as good as we claim. Get a free sample of our 25c tea and steep it with any you can get in Owosso for 35 to 40c and see if you can discover any particular difference in the quality. Don't take my say so. Don't take anyone's word for it, but use your own good common sense, and then buy the one that is the best and cheapest. "TEA SALE" every day in the year at City Treasurer Pitts commenced work Wednesday on a fine new residence on Water street north. The work will be pushed very rapidly.

Rev. S. S. Fleming was returned by the M. P. conference to the Burton church for another year. The action meets the hearty approval of the members of the churches included in his circuit.

The Burns elevator, corner Washington street and Cornuna road, is purchasing many large loads of wheat daily. The highest market price is paid not only for wheat but for beans and other produce.

The bean harvest is practically finished, the splendid weather of the past week having enabled the farmers to gather the crop in fine shape. If the present prices are maintained the crop will prove profitable.

N. B. Aiken was offered one day this week $3.00 a head for his spring lambs, and as his flock of twenty ewes raised nearly double that number of lambs it can safely be said that Mr. Aiken is well satisfied with the income from his flock this year.

At church of Christ, corner of Oliver and Hickory street, L. W. Spayd will speak next Sunday morning on "One way to help the Lord's work." At night he will speak on "The danger of hardening the heart against God." All cordially invited.

Out of a party of seven young men who started for a ride to the Park one day this week but three returned on their wheels. Two of the others broke their chains, one had his front wheel smashed and the fourth broke his front forks and bruised his face badly by the resulting fall.

On account of the continued sickness of Mrs. Osborne's sister, who resides in Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Osborne have broken up housekeeping and have taken rooms at the Merrell. Mrs. O. will spend considerable time in Lansing and may go south for the winter with her sister.

Rev. John Sweet, pastor of the First M. E. Church, and Rev. C. E. Hill, pastor of of Asbury M. E. church, will attend the annual conference to be held next week at Port Huron. The official board of the M. E. church by a unanimous vote has asked to have Mr. Sweet returned for another year.

Mrs. Robert Silver and family, Charles Libbey and Miss Palmer, of Deerfield; Dexter Pease and wife, of St. Charles; George Gage and wife, of Ovid; Seth Porter and wife, of Rush, and Manly Johnson, of Clinton county, composed a party which enjoyed the hospitality of Henry Johnson and family, Monday.

The Cornuna Presbyterian church has given Rev. W. H. Simmons a call to the pastorate of the church for the ensuing year, which he has accepted.

The additional switch board which was expected about four weeks ago arrived yesterday from Detroit and is being placed in position and connected up for use at the telephone exchange.

Knapp & Smith made an unusually fine window display for Labor Day. It was pronounced by many to be the best ever shown by the firm. The work was done by their upholsterer, Walter W. Swarthout.

A notice has been posted to the effect that all property owners along the streets to be paved who fail to make the required gas, sewer, and water connections by the 15th, next week Wednesday, will have the same made for them by the Board of Public Works with an extra charge.

The trustees of the Baptist church have received notice in an informal way of the acceptance by Rev. Carey V. Northrup of the pastorate of the Baptist church in this city. The members hope the acceptance will be received in due season and that Mr. Northrup will begin his work here by the first of October.

Two would be burglars attempted to enter a chamber window of C. W. Parker's residence, Monday night. They had placed a ladder against the veranda roof but aroused Mr. Parker before they got into the house. Mr. Parker promptly gave them a warm reception, firing several shots at them and they escaped in a hurry.

The seventh annual picnic and reunion of the Edgishmen, their families and friends, will be held on the fair grounds in Owosso, on Thursday, Sept. 16. Rev. E. W. Hunt, rector of the Episcopal church, will deliver the address. A game of cricket will be played at 11 a. m. The address will be at 2:00 p. m. All will be welcome.

At the Congregational church next Sunday morning at 10:30, Rev. J. C. Cromer will use as his subject "The Preacher—his message and what about it?" At the 5 o'clock service he will speak upon "The Sayings of our Lord" (recently discovered by Messrs Greenfield & Hunt)—their significance and a sermon from one of them.

D. M. Christian's east display window contained a most elaborate design for Labor Day, in which a large imitation fountain and two appropriately dressed female figures were prominent. To complete the picture doves were perched about the edge of the basin of the fountain, some in the very act of drinking. The design was the work of Geo. H. Chapman.

Owing to the impossibility of getting coaches on the 23d the Macabees were compelled to change the date of their excursion to Detroit to the 29th. This will doubtless be the last dollar excursion to Detroit this season and will certainly be the last one on a week day. The corrected date is Wednesday, September 29, and the K. O. T. M. excursion will be run to Detroit on that date at $1.00.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Peterson and daughter, Miss Ivah, left Sunday evening in response to a dispatch announcing the death of the doctor's sister, Mrs. Chittenden, of Hamilton, Ontario. The funeral of Charles Ahrends whose death Friday morning was noted in last week's issue of the paper, was held from the St. Johns Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday afternoon, with a large attendance. Rev. Christian Spathe, the pastor, conducting the service. The Arbeiter and Landwehr societies, of which he was a member, were in attendance, the latter society following its military custom by firing a volley over the grave of their dead comrade at Oakhill cemetery.

Miss Alice Hubbard, who for the past eight years has answered the calls at "Central," has resigned her position, the resignation to take effect October first. "Alice" has had the reputation of being the best-natured person who ever said hello through a telephone transmitter, and it is with regret that the patrons of the Owosso exchange learn of her determination to leave the work. She has a host of friends whose best wishes will follow her long after she has ceased to listen to their wants and wishes in telephone matters.

The annual meeting of the Union Chapel association was held Tuesday evening at THE TIMES office. The officers elected are: President, A. Robertson; vice president, Wellington White; secretary, E. O. Dewey; treasurer, John Brooks. The association is entirely free from debt and has quite a good amount in the treasury. One proposition has been made for the purchase of the property and other parties are expected to make bids within a few days. If a sale is not made the building will be painted this fall. Parties who are interested in the purchase of the property can consult any one of the following committee which has the matter in hand: O. T. Graham, E. O. Dewey, John Brooks.

The law providing for the putting in of fish ladders in all dams across the Shiawassee river went into effect on the 28th of last month. The act provides that owners of dams shall put the ladders in, the bills for the same to be certified by the state fish and game warden and paid by the county out of the general funds. If the owners fail to do the work it is to be done under the direction of the warden and the owners prosecuted. This is an excellent time to do the work, as the water is low. If the work is done this fall there will be plenty of fish in the river next spring and our sportsmen will be enabled to enjoy good sport at home. We hope the work will be commenced at once.
